

Merinda in fine form

EAST DONCASTER-based Merinda Calisthenic College performed well on Saturday at the Royal South Street Eisteddfod in Ballarat.

The college's intermediate team won the Victorian section and were runners-up to a combined South Australian State team in the overall championships.

Competitors in the championship section perform as many as 10 items including figure marching, club swinging, balletic arrangements and floor exercises.

Merinda Intermediate girls are previous winners of the South Street Championships, breaking a 10-year grip on the titles held by the South Australian team.

The girls will be out next year to bring the points back home again.

● Right: Merinda Calisthenic College intermediate girls.

Figure champions

THESE talented young ladies from Merinda Calisthenic College are the winners of the intermediate championship figure march section for the third year in succession.

They have also obtained first place in the spectacular display and clubswinging sections, and received an Inez Memorial trophy for their efforts.

The group will be holding two concerts at Methodist Ladies

College, Kew, on Monday, November 19 and Saturday, November 24.

So if you wish to see this winning team in action, tickets can be booked on 386 6995 or 842 3247.